TEMPORARY PORTABLE SIGNS MAY NOT BE DISPLAYED UNTIL A PERMIT HAS BEEN ISSUED

 REGULATIONS FOR TEMPORARY PORTABLE SIGNS ***

Definition –

Portable Sign: A temporary sign which is designed to be moved easily from place to place, that is not permanently attached to the ground or to a building or other structure, that may be supported by wheels, a portable stand, or a chassis, and may have provision for towing behind a vehicle. The main sign face of a portable changeable message sign is designed to hold manually changeable copy.

Regulations –

1. Portable signs and portable changeable message signs are permitted as temporary signs in non-residential districts as follows:
 - a. A temporary sign permit is required prior to installation of a portable changeable message sign.
 - b. The fee for the temporary sign permit shall be established by Village Council and may be amended from time to time.
 - c. One portable changeable message sign is permitted per business or use, regardless of the number of parcels occupied by said business.
 - d. The portable changeable message sign shall be displayed for a period of no more than thirty (30) days. A portable changeable message sign is permitted for no more than three (3) thirty (30) day display periods in any calendar year. There shall be an interval of at least fourteen (14) days between display periods.
 - e. The portable changeable message sign shall be maintained in a good, clean condition at all times. Damaged signs shall be repaired or removed upon the first signs of damage.
 - f. A portable changeable message sign shall not be lighted in any manner.
 - g. A portable changeable message sign shall not exceed thirty-two (32) square feet in area and shall not exceed six (6) feet in height.
 - h. A portable changeable message sign shall be setback a minimum of five (5) feet from the front property line and fifteen (15) feet from side and rear property lines.
 - i. A portable changeable message sign shall not pose a hazard to public safety. Such sign shall not be located in the clear vision area or be located so that, in the opinion of the Zoning Administrator or Ottawa County Sheriff, the sign causes a visibility problem for drivers or pedestrians.
 - j. A portable changeable message sign shall be located on the property of the applicable business or institution, and shall not be located in any public right-of-way.
